IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Summary of what You are covered for

ShareCover is designed to address the needs of home owners and renters who are renting out all or part of their residence to Guests for Temporary Residential Accommodation on a Recognised Platform. ShareCover provides cover for Your Home and its Contents whilst being used as Temporary Residential Accommodation for loss or damage that is directly caused by a Guest's (or a Guest's visitor's) act or omission. This includes risks such as theft, malicious and accidental damage directly caused by a Guest or a Guest's visitor.

The policy provides insurance cover while a Guest is in Temporary Residential Accommodation in your Home. The cover includes:

- Home and Contents insurance (see IMPORTANT NOTE below);
- cover for liability that may arise from a Personal Injury or Damage to Property claim (see IMPORTANT NOTE below); and
- loss of rental income within the limits set out in this PDS.

IMPORTANT NOTE

ShareCover provides cover only in relation to loss or damage caused by certain listed events directly caused by a Guest's (or a Guest's visitor's) act or omission and does not cover any loss or damage caused by a natural peril or disaster, including but not limited to storm, tempest, lightning, thunderbolt, hail, earthquake, Flood, cyclones, tidal surge, tsunami, action of the sea, high water, erosion, landslide, subsidence, bushfires and other catastrophic weather events or impact by debris from space, aircraft, rockets or satellites.

ShareCover will also not insure:

- spaces that have not been recognised as a habitable environment by government authorities (e.g. tree houses);

- spaces that are being sub-let without written consent from the landlord or Owner;
- any property that the relevant local government, council or government authority does not permit to be used as tourist, visitor or other short term or temporary accommodation;
- licensed hotels, motels, resorts, inns, or similar licensed venues for accommodation; or
- spaces that are rented through a digital website that does not carry out Verification Checks on the Guest making the booking on the Recognised Platform.

The most We will pay for loss or damage to Your Home is the sum insured for 'Building Cover' on the Certificate. There are other limitations in what We will pay including:

- up to $25,000 for theft or attempted theft of or from Your Home or Contents;
- up to $10 Million liability cover;
- up to the lesser of $15,000 or 3 months for loss of rental income or temporary accommodation from when the listed event took place; and
- up to $5,000 in legal fees for identity theft.

If You rent Your Home under a Lease:

- You must obtain written consent from the Owner for the Home to be used as Temporary Residential Accommodation; and
- if You take out cover for the Home building under this Policy, any cover You have under the Listed Events Cover for the Home building will cover only the Owner and any benefit, and any settlement of any claim under this Policy in relation to loss or damage to the Home building will be payable to and for the benefit of the Owner and You will not receive any benefit or settlement amount in relation to this aspect of any claim; and
- if a claim is made under this Policy by or on behalf of the Owner for loss or damage to the Home building, You must consent to Us communicating with the Owner in relation to the claim and You must provide Us with all information and assistance We may require in a timely fashion in order that we may do so.

If You rent the Home under a Lease, Your legal liability cover for all claims against You or Your Family by the Owner for loss or damage to the Home building caused by any of the events listed in the Listed Events Cover is limited to the sum insured for 'Building Cover' on the Certificate.

Your Policy only applies for a period of Temporary Residential Accommodation during the Period of Insurance specified on the Certificate. You can choose between types of cover under this Policy.

A 'Single stay policy' will cover You only for a single period of Temporary Residential Accommodation of 90 days or less. We will not offer renewal of a 'Single stay policy'. If You seek insurance cover for another period of Temporary Residential Accommodation outside the Period of Insurance of a 'Single stay policy', You must apply for this by accessing Your account at www.sharecover.com or contacting Us.

A '6 month policy' will cover You for any periods of Temporary Residential Accommodation of 90 days or less during the six month Period of Insurance noted on Your Certificate. A '12 month policy' will cover You for any periods of Temporary Residential Accommodation of 90 days or less during the 12 month Period of Insurance noted on Your Certificate. We may offer You renewal of a '6 month policy' or '12 month policy'.

The type of policy You have selected will be shown on Your Certificate.

It is Your responsibility to ensure that the type of policy You have is appropriate to Your needs and the amount of insurance cover You purchase accurately reflects the cost to replace Your Home and Contents in the event of a claim. You may be required to show proof of this in the event of a claim.

We are only liable to compensate You for the true cost of repairing or replacing Your Home and Contents or pay You the sum insured or other amount specified in the Policy, whichever is lower, for loss or damage covered under this Policy.

This is only a summary of Your cover. It is important that You read the PDS in full and Your Certificate to ensure that You understand the limitations of Your cover.

Code of Practice

We have adopted the General Insurance Code of Practice because We are serious about the standard of service We give You. Learn more about the Code at www.codeofpractice.com.au.

Things You need to tell Us

There are things You need to tell Us or We may refuse or reduce a claim or cancel Your Policy. We may cancel or change the terms of Your Policy if Your circumstances change.

You must advise Us:

- if You rent the Home under a Lease;
- of the expected dates of occupancy;
- of the Recognised Platform the Guest has booked on and evidence of the listing including Verification Checks; and
- if there is or will be any material change related to the Home or the nature of the risk including building work and new Guests during a period of Temporary Residential Accommodation and during the Period of Insurance.

Premium

If We accept Your application for this insurance, You must pay the Premium shown on the Certificate for this Policy.

How We calculate Your Premium

We determine Your Premium by considering a number of factors including but not limited to: the location of Your Home; the type and amount of cover You require; the Excess You select; and Your relevant claims and insurance experience. Factors that increase the risk to Us generally increase the Premium (e.g. a higher sum insured or a lower Excess) and those that lower the risk generally reduce the Premium (e.g. a lower sum insured or a higher Excess). If You have any queries about this, please contact Us.

Your Premium also includes amounts that take into account Our obligation (actual or in some cases estimated) to pay any relevant compulsory government charges, taxes or levies (for example, stamp duty, GST and fire services levy).

Your Premium together with the actual amount of these individual charges, taxes or levies will be shown on the Certificate.

How to pay Your Premium

You must provide Your credit card or other required payment details when You take out Your ShareCover insurance Policy.

If 'Single stay policy' is shown on Your Certificate, We will automatically deduct the full amount of Your Premium at the time You take out the Policy from the account You nominated when You took out Your Policy.

If '6 month policy' or '12 month policy' is shown on Your Certificate, You can pay Your Premium upfront or by monthly instalments by direct debit from an account or credit card You nominated when You took out Your Policy.

Your current Certificate shows the Premium amount You need to pay and the due date for Your upfront Premium or for each monthly instalment.

If You pay Your Premium upfront, We will deduct the full amount of Your Premium at the time You take out the Policy from the account You nominated when You took out Your Policy.

If you pay Your Premium by instalments:

- You authorise us to deduct these amounts by direct debit from the account or credit card you have nominated for instalment deductions.
- an instalment is unpaid if it is dishonoured, rejected, not received or We are otherwise unable to deduct it from the nominated credit card or account; and
- if any instalment remains unpaid for a month after its due date, Your Policy will be cancelled at the end of the one month period.

Excess

Your Excess is the amount You must contribute towards each claim made under this Policy. You do not need to pay an Excess for claims under the Liability Cover. Your Excess(es) will be shown on the Certificate. You only have to pay one Excess on claims You make under this Policy that arise out of the one event.

You may select the amount of Your Excess at the time You apply for the Policy. When You select a higher Excess amount, We will normally reduce Your Premium. We will advise You of the amount of the Excess at the time of Your application for this Policy.

Changes to Your Policy

If You wish to change any details of Your Policy, You must access Your account at www.sharecover.com or contact Us at <https://sharecover.com/contact> or contact@sharecover.com. If We accept the changes, We will provide You with an updated Certificate that will confirm the change and advise You of any additional Premium payable or refund You will receive for such change.

Cooling off and cancellation

The Policy only provides cover during the Period of Insurance as shown on the Certificate.

If the Period of Insurance for Your Policy is less than six months, the Policy will only become active on the first day of a Guest's scheduled period of Temporary Residential Accommodation shown as the Period of Insurance on the Certificate.

If the Period of Insurance for Your Policy is six or 12 months, the Policy will only become active on the first day of the Period of Insurance on the Certificate.

You have 21 days (the 'cooling off' period) after You purchase Your Policy to change Your mind and tell Us that You want to cancel the Policy. We will refund Your Premium so long as:

- You have not made a claim; and
- You tell Us before the first day of a Guest's scheduled period of Temporary Residential Accommodation.

If the Period of Insurance for Your Policy is less than six months You may cancel Your Policy at any time prior to the first day of a Guest's scheduled period of Temporary Residential Accommodation by accessing Your account at www.sharecover.com or contacting Us.

If the Period of Insurance for Your Policy is six or 12 months, You may cancel Your Policy at any time by accessing Your account at www.sharecover.com or contacting Us. Your cancellation will be effective from the date of cancellation. If You pay Your Premium upfront, We will refund Your Premium for the period after cancellation. If You pay Your Premium by instalments, We will not charge You any further instalments from the time You cancel Your Policy, but We will not refund any instalment Premiums already paid. You will also be required to pay any Premium amount outstanding at the time of cancellation.

We may only cancel Your Policy in accordance with the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) including if You do not comply with the Policy terms and conditions. If We cancel Your Policy, We will inform You in writing and We will refund Your Premium for the period after cancellation.

Renewal and expiry

Your Policy only applies for a period of Temporary Residential Accommodation during the Period of Insurance specified on the Certificate.

If 'Single stay policy' is shown on Your Certificate, Your Policy will expire at the end of the Period of Insurance specified on the Certificate and We will not offer renewal of Your Policy. If You seek insurance cover for a time outside the Period of Insurance of a 'Single stay policy', You must apply for this by accessing Your account at www.sharecover.com or contact Us.

If '6 month policy' or '12 month policy' is shown on Your Certificate of Insurance, at least 14 days prior to expiry of Your Policy We will give You notice in writing of the date and time at which Your Policy will expire and advise You if We are prepared to renew Your Policy. If We offer to renew Your Policy, You must pay the Premium shown on the renewal notice by the due date shown on the renewal notice.

Goods & Services Tax (GST)

All the benefits listed in this Policy include GST. If We cash settle a claim, Our claim payment will be based on a GST inclusive cost. However, if You are or would be entitled to claim any input tax credits for Your Home and Contents, We will reduce any claim by the amount of such input tax credits. If You (or any party entitled to a benefit under this Policy) are entitled to any input tax credit, You must tell Us the extent of Your entitlement.

Interested parties

If You (or the Owner if You rent the Home building under a Lease) have used all or part of the Home as security for a loan with a credit provider, e.g. a mortgage provider, You must provide Us with information about this credit provider in the event that You make a claim for loss or damage to the Home, and if We pay a cash settlement for a claim We may pay the credit provider in full or part settlement of Your claim. Please see 'Credit providers' rights' section.

Claims payment and Excess payment examples

The following examples are designed to show how a claim payment might be calculated and what amount You may be required to pay. These are examples only, do not cover all scenarios or benefits and do not form part of the Policy terms and conditions.

Claim example 1 – loss or damage to Your Home

You have insured Your Home that You own with a sum insured of $400,000 and an Excess of $300 applies to Your Policy. During a period of Temporary Residential Accommodation shown on the Certificate, the living room floor, walls and roof of Your Home are damaged by a fire caused by a Guest. We accept Your claim and assess the cost to repair the damage to be $30,000. If We arrange a contractor to repair the damage, We would pay the repairer $29,700 being the cost of repairs less the Excess. You would pay the $300 Excess direct to the repairer.

If We agree to pay You a cash settlement, We would pay You $29,700 being the amount of $30,000 it would cost Us to repair Your Home less the Excess of $300.

Claim example 2 – loss or damage to Your Contents and Portable Contents

You have insured Your Contents with a sum insured of $80,000 and an Excess of $300 applies to Your Policy. During a period of Temporary Residential Accommodation shown on the Certificate, Your watch, laptop computer and plasma television are stolen by a Guest. The cost to replace: the watch is $3,000; the laptop is $3,000; and the television is $2,000. We accept Your claim and agree to pay $7,200 being: $2,500 to replace the watch as payment for this Valuable Contents item is limited; plus $3,000 to replace the laptop; plus $2,000 to replace the television; and less the Excess of $300.

Claim example 3 – liability claim at Your Home

You have insured Your Home that You own and Contents and an Excess of $300 applies to Your Policy. During a period of Temporary Residential Accommodation shown on the Certificate, a visitor of Your Guest falls down the stairs in Your kitchen and seriously injures their back. We or a court decide that You are liable for $300,000 for the claim made against You by the visitor.

We settle the visitor's claim for $300,000 and pay this amount. We also pay Our lawyers $7,500 to defend the claim on Your behalf. You do not need to pay Us the Excess as it does not apply to claims under the Liability Cover.

Claim example 4 – loss of rental income

You have insured Your Home that You own and Contents and an Excess of $500 applies to Your Policy. Your Home is advertised and rented out at $100 per night. During a period of Temporary Residential Accommodation shown on the Certificate Your Home is damaged by a fire caused by a Guest. We agree to cover You for this damage under the Policy. We agree that the Home will be uninhabitable from the time of damage and for four weeks while the damage is repaired. There are two nights remaining on the current Temporary Residential Accommodation period and You have confirmed bookings for 20 nights during the 4 week repair period. We assess the cost of the repairs at $25,500. We arrange for a builder to repair Your Home. You claim for loss of rent.

We pay the builder $25,500 to repair Your Home. We pay You $1,700 for 22 nights of loss of rental income (2 nights from your existing booking and 20 nights from future confirmed bookings) at $100 per night totalling $2,200 less the Excess of $500.

Claim example 5 – loss or damage to Your Home, Contents and common property at a strata property

You own Your Home which is an apartment in a complex under a strata title. The body corporate insures the building in which your apartment is located including the common areas of that building. You have insured Your Contents with a sum insured of $80,000 and an Excess of $300 applies to the Listed Events Cover and the Strata Property Cover of Your Policy. You informed Us at the time you applied for the Policy that Your Home was owned under strata title. During a period of Temporary Residential Accommodation shown on the Certificate, the bathroom, entry hall floor, wall and a table within your apartment, as well as the carpet in the common area outside your apartment are damaged by water overflowing from a bath left running by a Guest. The cost to replace the table is $500. The cost to repair the damage to the bathroom, entry hall flooring and wall and the carpet in the common area is assessed at $15,000. The body corporate building insurance will not cover the costs to repair the damage to the bathroom, entry hall floor or wall or the carpet in the common area.

We accept Your claim for damage to the table as Contents under the Listed Events Cover. We pay You $200 being the amount to replace the table of $500 less the Excess of $300. As You informed Us that the Home was owned under strata title and the damage is not covered under the body corporate building insurance, We accept Your claim for damage to the bathroom, entry hall floor and walls and the carpet in the common area under the Strata Property Cover. We also pay You $15,000 being the cost to repair the damage to the bathroom, entry hall floor and wall and carpet in the common area. In total We pay You $15,200 being the claim of $200 under the Listed Events Cover and the claim of $15,000 under the Strata Property Cover.

If the body corporate insurance did cover the costs to repair the damage to the bathroom, entry hall floor and wall and carpet in the common area, We would not pay any amount in relation to this aspect of the claim. We would pay only $200 being the amount to replace the table as Contents of $500 less the Excess of $300.

Claim example 6 – loss or damage to the Home if You rent the Home under a Lease

You have insured the Home that You rent under a Lease with a sum insured of $400,000 and Contents with a sum insured of $80,000. An Excess of $500 applies to Your Policy. During a period of Temporary Residential Accommodation shown on the Certificate, the bathroom, living room floor, walls and roof of the Home are damaged by a fire caused by a Guest. When You advise Us of the damage, You confirm that You rent the Home under a Lease and that the Owner wishes to submit a claim for the damage under Your Policy. You provide Us with contact details of the Owner and the Owner provides all information We request in relation to the claim. We accept the Owner's claim and assess the cost to repair the damage to be $100,000. We pay the Owner $99,700 being the amount of $100,000 it would cost Us to repair the Home less the Excess of $300. We may seek to recover contribution to the amount paid to the Owner from the Owner's building insurance.
